Dynamic Grace in Motion

By the Rev'd Shirley Smith Graham

In my previous career as a project manager, the joke was that my job was like the old vaudeville act where the person spins a series of plates on poles and must visit each plate to give it a further spin so that none of the plates fall off its stick. The secret to success, whether managing projects or spinning plates, is to keep all the important elements in motion. One could say this is a true phenomenon in nature, but it is also an observation about how God seems to work through the Church.

A congregation cannot focus on just one ministry. A congregation does not flourish on good preaching alone. A congregation doesn't thrive on compassionate pastoral care alone, or friendly members alone, or generous self-giving outreach alone. Focus on each individual's growth is essential, but focus on self-development distorts a church unless the self-development is also tied to service to others. Study becomes academic without being paired with worship. All these elements -- worship, outreach, prayer, faith formation, pastoral care, resource management -- when engaged together lead to a growing, lively church, full of people who are following in the footsteps of Jesus.

Of course, this means keeping all the plates spinning. The Holy Spirit is very good at keeping all the plates spinning, helping a church stay gospel-oriented and flexible enough to adapt itself to people's circumstances on the ground. But this also means that we never "crack the code" of how church best works. We never find the perfect worship schedule for all time, the ideal commission structure, or the dream approach for funding ministries. As soon as we find "perfect," we stop "spinning", or changing and responding to the Spirit, and when we stop responding to the Spirit, we die.

While it is true that change can be fatiguing, motion is needed to keep moving: God's will is to keep the plates spinning. So the next time you see us updating something at the church, or revising a program or developing a new ministry, rejoice that the plates are still spinning. If you don't know everything that's going on, or if you need to be introduced to someone you don't know, rejoice that the plates are still spinning. If the financial needs of the congregation increase, rejoice that we are finding new ways to touch people with Christ's love and invite them into the service of God's kingdom. The timeless ministry of Christ remains effective while the church is willing to adapt to the eras of particular times and cultures in which the church finds itself.

Please Join Us for News -- Not Your Father's Annual Meeting

When a congregation is focused on doing wonderful things for Christ and Christ's people, it's exciting to get together and hear what's about to happen. While many churches have an annual meeting that focuses on the past, we now rely on our communications through The Cloak, The Threads, The Sunday Announcements, Twitter and Facebook as well as our members' active engagement in ministry to find out what has been happening. What is far more strategic is getting the congregation coordinated to achieve what we plan to do. Join the vestry on Sunday, February 9, from 10 - 11 a.m. to find out what dreams they discerned for our ministries together for the next three years and to give your feedback. Take part in the conversation. We are not fully ourselves unless everyone is there. The treasurer will make a summary presentation of the church's financial posture. Children's activities will happen concurrently so that Sunday School teachers can attend the meeting. See you on the 9th.

The clergy and vestry would like to thank all of the members of St. Martin's family for their support that made 2013 a financial success, as well as another major step forward on our spiritual journeys. Thank you to those who pledged, as pledges exceeded budget by $9,000. Thank you to those who made our non-pledge contributions also exceed the amount budgeted for that income line item. Thank you to the staff and lay leadership, who with great effort kept our expenses under budget. We look forward to an exciting year in 2014, and please send your pledge in if you have not done so already. Your support will ensure that we plan appropriately and continue to expand our parish programs.

-- Ron Monark, Treasurer

Grateful, Glad & Giving

From the Assistant Rector

As most of you know, my family has faced something that no one wants to face, but it is something that many of you have. Maggie, my wife and the most wonderful person I have and will ever know, was diagnosed with breast cancer on the eve of Christmas Eve. She then endured what many of our parishioners have, a double mastectomy, on the eve of New Year's Eve.

After the confusion, anger, and sadness that follows any event such as this I preached a rather rambling sermon to let you all know what had happened in our family. There is a very simple reason that I did this. The first reason is a little self serving- we clergy can get incredibly upset when we find out about catastrophic events after the fact. So, knowing this and with the incredibly wise counsel of the wisest priest I have ever met (Shirley, your Rector), I decided to let you know what was happening with our family in the most open forum that I could imagine. That forum was, and is, the pulpit at St. Martin's Episcopal Church. I did this with incredible trepidation. The pulpit is, in my mind, to speak about the Gospel and Jesus Christ.

After the rambling sermon, I realized that my words were indeed not about Maggie, me, Liam or Finn, but about the good news of family and the openness of family. I realized this because upon later reflection I came to understand that the sermon was not about us, but about the hard bumps in the road that we all lift each other up from.

I must admit that I only realized this after the sermon was over.

This was because at the end of the services, I received the love and support of a parish that made me know that our relationship was not a one way street. Our relationship is not one in which I support you and received no support in return- but one of family that love and support each other. In other words, y'all love us as we love you.

In other words, y'all have all taught us more than any three years of seminary could. We are eternally grateful for a lesson that will form our family for the rest of our days.

So, that being said, we would like to thank the Community of Saint Martin's Episcopal Church for all of the prayers, the food, the cards, the flowers, the offers of logistical help, and simple love that all of you have shared. Most of all we would like to thank you for the lesson of family and ministry.

We would also like to thank the staff and vestry for giving an ordained zombie a wide berth during this time- along with a lot of love, care, and understanding. Know that we all love you and are grateful to be a part of such a wonderful community. You have made me realize that the sign on the pulpit is not just a slogan, but "we would see Jesus" is something that is real and alive at this place- because we have definitely seen the face and compassion of Christ in all of you.

God Bless you all and Thank You,
Fr. Clay, Maggie, Liam, and Finn

For Those Seeking Baptism

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism is the sacrament by which God adopts us as his children and makes us members of Christ's Body, the Church and inheritors of the kingdom of God. The sacrament also bonds the people of the Church to those being baptized as a community. For those who are considering this important step for themselves or their children, St Martin's Episcopal Church would like to offer these traditional dates as possibilities. The dates are The Easter Vigil (Saturday, April 19th at 6pm), The Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday, April 27th), or Pentecost (Sunday, June 8th). All dates, with the exception of the Easter Vigil, will offer either the 9:15 am or the 11 am service as a possibility. Contact Fr. Clay with any questions or requests for other dates at clay@stmartinswmbg.org or (757) 229-1111.

Outreach Update

Saint Martin's strives to be one of the limbs of the Body of Christ in this world and I am very happy to say that this is evident through our many efforts in outreach!

In the last fiscal year, you as parishioners have-

- Donated over 500 bags of groceries to FISH at a value of roughly $16,000
- Prepared and served over 475 meals at the Grove Christian Outreach Center and delivered donated groceries on a weekly basis.
- Fed over 225 meals to homeless persons in Newport News in partnership with St. Paul's Episcopal Church.
- Distributed approximately $55,000 in financial assistance to international, national, and local individuals and organizations (operating and restricted funds combined), excluding our contribution to the Diocese of Southern Virginia, which was an additional $48,000
- Volunteers lend their talents to organizations such as Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Avalon, FISH, Walk the Talk Prison Ministries, The Community Resource Center, and the Community of Faith Mission.
- The parish has sent a mission trip to Minot, North Dakota to volunteer over 300 hours to aid residents devastated by flooding.
- Members continue the tradition of our annual Christmas gift drive for the kids of James River Elementary School and providing thanksgiving meals to the precariously housed and homeless of the Williamsburg area
- Parishioners worked over 596 volunteer hours by staffing the Winter Shelter homeless shelter program in conjunction with the Community of Faith Mission.

We are growing in our efforts and continue to strive towards the goal that is emblazoned on our pulpit- "That we would see Jesus"

Dear Friends at St. Martin's Episcopal Church,

On behalf of our learners, I want to thank you for your generous support of Literacy for Life. Your gift of $425 makes it possible for nearly 500 adults in our area to make life-changing breakthroughs as they strive toward independence and new opportunities. Because of you, our learners are finding better jobs, receiving their GEDs, actively participating in their children's schools, and becoming more involved in our community.

I encourage your members to come see your gift in action. If any of your congregation or staff would like to take a tour and learn more about our program, please call me personally at 221-3326. It would be an honor to show you how your donation is making a difference.

Sincerely,

Joan B. Peterson

CALENDARS & CARDS RECYCLING PROJECT

By Stephanie King

In the fall of 2009, Ann Meyer and I were looking for a way to do something constructive with the calendars that filled the mailboxes of the Bruton and St. Martin's parishioners, rather than putting them on the curb with the newspaper & magazines to be recycled. I asked a friend, whose uncle was at Envoy Williamsburg, if she thought the residents and staff might be able to use some wall calendars and she immediately said yes! She gave me the name of the Activities Director and we were off and running. Just before Thanksgiving Ann & I delivered several hundred 2010 wall calendars, Christmas cards and even wall hangings to brighten the rooms of the 130 residents and the staff at Envoy.

The next fall the calendars and Christmas cards came pouring in. So we added Avalon, Grove Christian Outreach, and Olde Towne Medical Center. We also learned that Erase the Need could use the pads of paper and pens and that Grove could use all occasion cards all year. Each year the numbers collected and distributed increased.

This year, thanks to the Activities Department at Williamsburg Landing, residents were able to drop off calendars and cards. With three groups of people "recycling" together the response was overwhelming! We were able to distribute calendars and cards to four more organizations.

The organizations are: Avalon, Child Development Resources (CDR), Envoy Williamsburg, Erase the Need, Family Preservation Services, Inc. in Hampton, Grove Christian Outreach, Olde Towne Medical Center, Sanders Retirement Village in Gloucester and Woodhaven at Williamsburg Landing.

The totals are: 1045 calendars and 3414 cards, of which 2121 were Christmas cards. 390 of the Christmas cards came in the week before Christmas. Those will be delivered to the Liz Moore Military Team next September as they begin collecting cards to send the troops overseas, so that they can send them to family and friends back home.

November 18, 2013

Dear Rev. Smith Graham:

On behalf of Avalon: A Center for Women and Children, I want to thank you for your most recent contribution in the amount of $1,000 on 11/18/2013. Your gift will make it possible for us to serve more than 500 women and children in the greater Williamsburg area who are experiencing domestic violence, sexual assault, and homelessness this year.

These are just a few of the programs that Avalon provides in our community.

- 24-Hour Helpline
- Emergency Shelter
- Transitional Housing
- Children's Services
- Legal Advocacy
- Counseling and support groups

You are helping to make a difference in the lives of others and, like our Board of Directors, staff, and volunteers, you are assisting in making our community a safer and healthier one. Thank you again for your support.

Most sincerely,

Giving Tree

Dear Parish Family,

One of the things that I have always appreciated and loved about St. Martins is our desire to reach out to others. Once again you all have been extraordinarily generous in your response to the needs and wishes of the children from the Giving Tree.

From my perspective, this years' efforts came together beautifully. It has been a joy to work with Lora, Sandy and that mischievous elf (Pickett) to make this a successful program. And for Florence, Len and Blanche and 120 + of you who gave of their time and resources to this project, I thank you.

I am grateful to be part of this loving and giving community.

Senior Pastoral Care

By Martha Caruso

One of the founding principles I love about Saint Martin's is our outreach and conviction that we are all part of the body of Christ. Our pulpit bears the words "We would see Jesus". Our priests bid us to evangelize by example, so that others may know that we are Christians by our outward signs of love and compassion.

So what do we do when our hearts are willing; yet our hands, feet and stamina have become unable to comply with our mission, when we become the recipient of Saint Martin's care, instead of the doer of good that we have always been? What is our ministry as we age?

Faith, prayer, and humility are the basis of our work for Christ. These are powers that bolster any faith community. A daily prayer for Saint Martin's and the work we have been given to do, is a way of blessing and safeguarding our outreach workers. Praying for the sick, brings loving healing. Making a daily safety call to an elderly friend brings an assurance of connectedness and caring. The work of Christ is quiet and without media fanfare or political affiliation.

As we age, humility may take a different slant. Being care- receivers, is also a gift to give back to the parish that so wants to help others. This being said, it is often very difficult to ask for continuing help, without feeling like a burden. After all, everyone has very busy lives and very little extra time, and people have a hard time saying no to a person in need. So all too often, we don't ask and struggle on the best we can.

How difficult it must have been for the disciples to let Jesus wash their feet and minister to them. In ancient times it would have been considered rude to not offer a traveler off the dusty roads a basin to wash his feet, and respite from the journey. Today it might be considered rude to not honor and care for our elders and give them respite on the journey. But to accept someone's offer, to see your calloused, twisted feet, or other age-related ailments, is truly taking faith, prayer and receiving, to a state of true humility. It is here that the grace of God appears. Jesus loves us and works through us at all stages of our lives. "Such as my love has been for you, so must your love be for each other. This is how all will know you as my disciples: by your love for one another" (see John 13, 34-35). Jesus knew it was hard to receive, but He knew that we were connected as the body of Christ, caring and receiving each other's care.

Saint Martin's Senior Pastoral care is working with Faith in Action to help people examine what needs they may have and providing information to help people age safely in their homes, with some added supports. Information is also available for support groups for care-givers, by calling either Saint Martin's or Faith in Action.

St. Martin's/ St. Stephen ELCA Community Health Forum

On April 5th, 2014 St. at 10 am,

Saint Martin's will host a Forum focusing on how we navigate our world as the hands and hearts of Christ in this world in the light of the special wellness challenges that face us in the Greater Williamsburg area and the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Marco Grimaldo, Executive Director of the Virginia Interfaith Center on Public Policy based Richmond, VA be our keynote speaker speaking on focusing on how we respond in faith based ways to the very real issues that face our community. The forum then will focus on two important health related issues mental health and aging.

“Individual and Collective Responses to Our Community”

The first issue addressed will focus on mental health issues in our community and the options, public and private, that are available for us as Christians to help, be informed, and be a welcoming, safe, and open place for all of God's people.

The second focus will deal with the challenges of aging in our churches and surrounding communities. The forum will focus on how we as Christians can strive to nurture connections with seniors in our churches and community.

The forums will feature group presentations and facilitated small group sessions featuring local professionals involved in these issues. Lunch will be served during the event.

The Outreach Commission is excited to announce that our church will begin an exciting new project in February of this year.

On the last Wednesday of every month, St. Martin's will open the doors of our church to welcome those in need in for a hot meal. The difference in this project and a standard meal service is that we will all break bread together as a congregation and a community. We have seen the relationships that have been made and testified to in our congregation members who have participated in the Community of Faith Mission Winter Shelters, so we thought- why only once a year?

With this in mind, we will reach out the local social services agencies, the neighborhood schools, and neighborhood churches to invite people to simply come by and sit down to a potluck meal at Saint Martin's. For this project to work, there is one essential ingredient. That ingredient is not a spice or a dish —the most important thing is YOU. This is simply because building relationships is the way we live into our call as Christians and there is no better way to build relationships in a community than by sharing meals!

So, bring a side dish, drink, or dessert to Miles Hall on February 26th at 6pm; an entree, side, dessert on March 26th, or April 30th at 6pm and reach out in hospitality to those in need- and be prepared to see the face of Christ in each other!

Growing, Together and Supporting Each Other

By the Rev'd Shirley Smith Graham

We can grow and support each other by meeting together regularly in a small group setting.

It's no accident that Jesus found the model of 12 friends gathered together to be an effective way of helping them grow and enabling them to touch others. Twelve people meeting together is a small enough group for everyone to get to share, ask their questions and make bonds of friendship with each other. It's also big enough to prevent any one person from feeling too self-conscious.

In the Fall of 2013, with the vestry's encouragement, I launched St. Martin's Home Fellowship Groups. In the next few months, we will grow from two groups to five groups, and more will be developed as people express the desire to be involved in a group. Each group meets weekly for an initial period of weeks to get to know each other. Then the group decides on an ongoing schedule that will work for their members. At each session, the group follows the format of opening prayer, check-in, study / sharing, prayer requests, closing prayer and refreshments.

Each group consists of a host and a facilitator who have been in one of my training groups and learned how to support a healthy group. I will periodically visit the group as a way of keeping pastoral contact. My hope is that, eventually, we will have a Home Fellowship Group in every area of our community to support the growth and pastoral care of members beyond what happens on Sunday morning. In addition, I would want groups to feel free to invite their neighbors so that even those who do not worship at St. Martin's may benefit.

What Home Fellowship Group is

- Individuals who are willing to grow individually and together
- People who yearn for an assurance of Christ's caring for them in their daily lives
- Folks who let others share appropriately, without cross-talk, advice-giving or judgment.
- A balance of prayer, personal sharing and Christian study (often the Bible but sometimes a devotional or contemporary Christian thinker).
- A non-threatening environment
- Coordinated and resourced by Rev'd Shirley
- Initially, groups will meet weekly for six weeks, and then members can decide whether to continue. You may move between groups.
- Each group has a host, facilitator, and a point of contact.
- Each group has 8-12 people to enable a good group dynamic and an opportunity for all to share.

What Home Fellowship Group is not

- A self-help group
- A counseling or therapy session
- A Bible study (only), even though study is a component of every session
- A mentoring group

What do I do if I'm interested in a Home Fellowship Group?

- Look at the list of groups and find one that meets on a day/time that works for your schedule.
- Call or email the point of contact for the group and find out if there's room in the group.
- If there is room, go! If there's not, try another group.
- If you can't find a group that still has openings, contact Rev'd Shirley so that she can know of growth needs.

As of Winter 2014, the following Home Fellowship Groups are in operation:

- Group A, John Tyler Hwy. Meets Thursdays, 7 –8:30 p.m. beginning Feb. 6.
Point of Contact: Sue Ducibella, 259-9965, ducibes@gmail.com. — This group is full!
- Group B, Ford's Colony. Meets Sundays, 7-8:30 p.m., beginning Mar. 2.
Point of Contact: Roger Hoopengardner, 903-4246, roghoop@aol.com.
- Group C, York County. Meets Sundays, starting Feb. 9.
Point of Contact: Alice-Marie Schwenkler, 220- 2560, amschwenkler@gmail.com.
- Group D, New Town. Meets Wednesdays, beginning Mar.19.
Point of Contact: Len Scharf, 345-6401, lrscharf34@yahoo.com
- Group E, Kingsmill/City of Williamsburg. Meets Thursdays, 7-8:30 p.m., starting on Feb. 6.

Vestry Report November 2013

ST. MARTIN'S FINANCIAL REPORT DECEMBER, 2013

December provided a very strong finish as it has in the last two years, enabling us to finish the year with revenues substantially ahead of expenses. The statements below are probably confusing. I apologize, but the problem stems from the budget containing $22,800 in revenue from "From Restricted Funds", which was never needed, and has distorted revenue and Net Total for the entire year. The key to understanding 2013 is actual cash income and actual cash expenses, summarized in the underlined statement in NET/NET below.

REVENUES

Revenues were over budget for the month by $47,054 ($48,954 if you disregard the From Restricted Funds budget of $1,900 per month, which we did not touch all year). As a result, the annual revenues were $16,864 over the published budget. HOWEVER, actual revenues were over the real budgeted income (without the From Restricted Funds entry) for the year by $39,666. For the year, Pledges were over budget by $9,044 and Non-Pledge Contributions were over by $31,877.

EXPENSES

Expenses were over budget by $5,419 for the month as we caught up on some last minute expenditures. YTD expenses were under budget by $3,390.

NET/NET

For the year, 2013, St. Martin's had real income of $717,158 and real expenses of $699,292...leaving us with a surplus of $17,866. On the I&E statement, you will see a surplus of $20,254, which is larger than the stated surplus of $17,866, because, even with the anticipated addition of $22,800 From Restricted Funds, the budget anticipated that we would have negative cash flow of $2,388.

PREPARING FOR 2014

In the last vestry meeting, the vestry approved the 2014 expense budget and postponed action on the budgeted income until we had more data and more analyses. We are accumulating that information and expect to deliver actionable information prior to the February meeting.

A quick review of the activities of the Vestry reveal several important themes.

St. Martin's, as is the case with other mainline Protestant churches, is undergoing a significant transformation in its membership and lay leadership. Sadly, the World War II Generation, the Silent Generation (those born in the 1930s and early 1940s) and some "Baby Boomers" (1946 to mid-1960s) are rapidly moving on to their ultimate rewards and will no longer be with us on earth. Our ministers have presided over twenty funerals this year. As a result, the current active membership must match the courage, compassion and commitment of earlier generations. This will obviously require a willingness to lead and contribute.

Fortunately, as evident by the five new volunteers for the Vestry, our members are responding to the challenges for leadership. At the same time, we need to thank Geoff Wade for his superb leadership as Senior Warden this year, who along with the thoughtful and constructive contributions of Bill Hoover, Nancy Pierce and Bar-bette Spaeth, will be completing their three year terms on the Vestry.

St. Martin's as of this date is also meeting the monetary challenge needed to sustain our missions. National studies show that it takes five new members to equal the contributions of one older member who has passed from the scene. Fortunately, this does not appear to be the case at St. Martin's. With the skillful leadership of Ron Monarch, as Treasurer, we have a good picture of the actual expenditures for next year and can budget accordingly.

Of course, ordinary and exceptional expenditures are always with us. Our Junior Warden, Rene de Jager, along with Cliff Dickey who is also on the Vestry and many others, have, as all members will undoubtedly notice, done a virtual transformation of our buildings and grounds with minimum expenditures.

The original DNA of St. Martin's is its commitment to outreach. Based on the truism that any organization needs to respond to new challenges to flourish, the Outreach Commission has announced four major activities and goals for 2014. (a) The continuation of the Winter Shelter Program at the church for the week of January 26-February 2. (b.) A Parish/Neighborhood potluck dinner pilot program starting in February. (c.) A program of forums with guest speakers known as the Parish Practical Theology Forums on a number of issues such as aging, mental health, pollution and violence. (d.) Last but certainly not least, St. Martin's will continue its financial support for community service organizations.

Can not close without expressing the greatest admiration for the fifteen years of tremendous service of David Benedict in the numerous missions for the well being of this community.

Hopefully, this has been informative without being verbose.

St. Martin's Episcopal Church Vestry Report for December

Submitted by Barbette Spaeth on Dec. 16, 2014

The November Minutes of the Vestry were approved.

The Treasurer reported that for income for November we were under budget, like last year. Non-pledge contributions were a bit low. Expenses were over budget, but not excessively. Overall, we will wind up the year under budget. He also reviewed Version 5 of the expense budget for next year, which is very firm. Final approval of the revenue side of the budget will be next February. The average pledge is down $300. There are a good number of new pledges, but we are losing some people at the highest level of pledging. The vestry voted to approve Version 5 of the expense budget.

The vestry voted to approve the clergy housing allowance resolutions.

The Rector's report included the following highlights:

- Helped to organize the election of new vestry members along with Nominating Committee and communicated with the new vestry members.
- Senior pastoral care ministries continued with help of Martha Caruso
- Successfully completed training of home fellowship groups.
- Clay and Outreach Commission are preparing for homeless shelter; our time is last week of January.
- Clay also looking at new procedure for administering individual assistance.
- Registering delegates for Council at beginning of Feb.
- Greening of church now in process; list being made of details of process
- Bulletins being readied for Christmas liturgies

The Senior Warden's report included the following highlights:

- Vestry retreat is at the end of January. All current and new members are encouraged to attend.
- Thanked everyone for service on vestry, esp. Renee and Ron
- Geoff thanked by vestry for his leadership
- The Senior Warden's report included the following highlights:

The Junior Warden's report included the following highlights:

- Wood siding on the side of the Zig-Zag Building has been replaced in time for Christmas.
- Termite treatment planned around sanctuary when weather is warmer
- Check to be cut for contractor before end of year
- Starting in January, there needs to be one volunteer per month to work with the Junior Warden; volunteers sought from vestry
- Air conditioning compressor needs replacing, hopefully before end of year. Additional quote to be sought

The committee reports included the following highlights:

Memorial Garden (Shirley)

Memorial garden committal site complete and beautiful. Kudos to Cliff and Renee. Expenses were covered out of reserves and will be paid back.

Need to map area discussed

Nominating Committee Report (Shirley)- Nothing to report. All sponsored leaders are being deployed Grateful, Glad and Giving Report (Shirley) Program continuing with Shirley and Ginger in charge.

Finance Committee Report (David, Bill)

- Description of church investments. Review of decision to move some money into short term investment bond fund; will be reviewed quarterly.
- Discussion about concerns re pledging: smaller amounts on average than last year
- Recommendation to vestry: contact individuals who made pledges last year who did not this year for 2014.
- Rector to review list for pastoral concerns.
- Announcement should be made to parish on how many parishioners had pledged and at what level.
- Need to incentivize people to give more money per person.
- Causes? Shrinking availability of discretionary dollars and aging of population? Try to identify source of problem. Identify bands of pledging and average pledge per band

Endowment Fund Committee (Shirley)

- Need to build up corpus
- Has healthy outreach plan and special programs
- No spending until reaches $100,000.

Outreach Commission (Clay)

- Outreach commission asked to put together list of topics: includes the following: gun violence, clean water and air, aging, mental health
- Monthly parish dinners open to homeless
- Shelter week is Jan. 27
- Can sign up on kiosk in narthex
- Training planned
- Can invite friends and neighbors to come
- Granting decisions to be made soon
- Send out lump sums

The Senior and Junior Wardens were elected for 2014:

Senior: Barbara Watson

Junior: Renee to continue

Terms of service on the vestry

Conventional 3 yr.

One person to hold for 2 yr.

A Prayer for Birthdays

O God, our times are in your hand:

Look with favor, we pray, on these your servants as they begin another year.

Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
